

Panel I : Keeping a Level Playing Field in Achieving Carbon Neutrality: A CBAM Perspective

Panelists

Topic: Current Status of Carbon Pricing in Taiwan

Dr. Je-Liang Liu

Research Fellow, The Center for Green Economy (CGE), Chung-Hua Institution for Economic Research (CIER), Taiwan.

Biography:

Dr. Je-Liang Liou is currently a research fellow of The Center for Green Economy (CGE), Chung-Hua Institution for Economic Research (CIER), an economic policy think tank with long history in Taiwan. The specialties of Dr. Liou including Resource & Environmental Economics and Production Economics. Cost-benefit analysis (CBA), non-market evaluation, efficiency, and performance measurement, and GHGs policy assessment are all his research interests. Dr. Liou has published more than 80 academic articles (including in Chinese and English) and participated in the execution of more than 60 projects